

JULIETTE GORDON LOW BIRTHPLACE

10 Oglethorpe Avenue, Savannah

This two-part National Historic Landmark includes an elegant Regency style mansion, built in 1818-1821, with a third story added in 1886, that was the birthplace and childhood home of the founder of the Girl Scouts in the United States, and a former carriage house several blocks away where the first troop met in March 1912. Mrs. Low's creation grew from 18 members to more than 148,000 at the time of her death in 1927. The house now serves as a national program center for the Girl Scouts of the United States of America and is open to the public as a historic house museum.
